

Created by
MINA SON & MARIA LUNA

Series Format Deck

A webseries about two young women who fight the crimes the police don't punish... and fail at it.

Logline

Two friends with a talent for elaborate revenge schemes see an opportunity to monetize their unusual skill – but nothing goes exactly as planned.

Pilot Synopsis

After being abused at work by their fascist dictator of a boss, Mrs. Bradford, Miranda and Blanca get drunk and decide to quit – but not before they get back at her in an extreme way.

Pilot Link:

<https://vimeo.com/317342006>

password: luna

Season One

After being mistreated at work by a terrible boss, Miranda and Blanca get drunk and decide to quit with "extreme prejudice." They are arrested by Officer Payne and, as they sober up, the reality of their situation becomes clearer, but so does a possible new opportunity.

In desperation, Officer Payne, seeing their talent for revenge, hires Miranda and Blanca to get back at his little sister's boyfriend for constantly breaking her heart. Miranda and Blanca are ready and willing to 'educate' the boyfriend to the full satisfaction of their first official client in their new role as Karma Bitchelantes.

Unfortunately, Officer Payne and his sister are less than pleased with the results of the Karma Bitchelantes' work, but just as things look dire, Miranda and Blanca meet Samantha, a successful YouTuber in a tight spot. She hires them to find her stalker and get him to leave her alone. Fearful that the stalker might be dangerous, the Karma Bitchelantes decide to get a crash course in self-defense from a 'teach-at-home' Krav Maga master – who turns out to be the stalker.

Miranda and Blanca need more clients if they're going to make Karma Bitchelantes a real business. Miranda comes up with starting a support group to find people who might need their services. Bring on the freaks.

Meanwhile, with their revenge business falling short of the mark once again, Miranda and Blanca are left a little late on rent. They'll be able to pay it next week (probably), they just have to avoid their landlord for four more days. So, they're hiding out in a 'borrowed' car in an alley across the street. To get their lives together, they're going to have to do something big and righteous – and do it right. That's when disaster strikes.

Tone of the Series

“Broad City” meets “True Detective.” “Karma Bitchelantes” is a broad buddy comedy with a dark undertone about two young women who fight the crimes, big and small, that the police don’t punish.

Main Characters

♥ Partners in Fighting Crimes of the Heart ♥

Miranda: 25-30, Blanca's best friend, Korean. Dissatisfied millennial trying to survive in LA without having to work too hard. A lover of comic books and video games. A little more practical than Blanca, but easily swept along by her grand ideas.

Blanca: 25-30, Miranda's best friend, Spanish. Similar in many ways, she too is a dissatisfied millennial trying to survive LA without working too hard with a love for comic books and video games. Blanca, however, is more of a wild card: a bit unpredictable (a self-proclaimed crazy Spaniard), but loyal to a fault. She loves her friend – even if she gets her into trouble from time to time.

Supporting Characters

♥ Our First Clients ♥

Officer Payne: Early 30s, ambitious and by the book, for the most part. He loves law enforcement. Dogged and wants to make detective before he hits 35. Strict on himself and others. Devoted brother. Hires Miranda and Blanca out of desperation.

Cherish Payne: Late 20s, little sister to Officer Payne. Driven, just like her brother – a Payne family trait. She's a cross-fit believer, presently working as a paralegal while she studies for the bar exam. Has a shitty ass boyfriend.

Samantha: 20s, a successful YouTuber. At her wits' end after being stalked for months. Hires Miranda and Blanca out of desperation.